

OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD

ARIZONA SECTION SOCIETY FOR RANGE MANAGEMENT

INFORMATION AND CRITERIA FORM

Nomination Deadline: November 15, 2023

Requirements for Nominee Eligibility:

- Need not be a member of the International Society for Range Management
- Does not have to reside in the state of Arizona, but must contribute to a considerable amount of work in the state.
- Must not be a member of State or County Awards Committee or of the Board of Directors
- Must not have received this award within the previous six years

Description:

This person must have made a contribution to the advancement of the art and science of range management that is worthy of special recognition. It may have been made during the past year or a previous year, but the contribution must still be recognized for its merit. Such contributions may include new or better methods to aid range management; an outstanding article, publication, or information activity that has been widely acclaimed; or unusual leadership in the ranching or professional field of range conservation management.

Instructions: In the space provided below or on a separate sheet give a complete description of how this individual has contributed to the development/enhancement of range management in the past year or years. Please give examples of groups, committees, studies, and/or range practices with which the nominee is involved. Nominations may be disqualified by the awards committee if nomination form is not fully completed.
